

← Back to preferences

SELECTED BOOK

Der Tod in Venedig

Thomas Mann

1913

Your recommendations

Based on the reading experience you selected.

WHAT THE AI WAS TOLD (2 DIMENSIONS)

^

- MEDIUM

Setting

World-building, time period, location, and how vividly the world is drawn
- MEDIUM

Themes

Central ideas and questions the book explores

 7 candidates were removed because they could not be verified in Open Library. Showing 5 verified results.

1

The Garden of the Finzi-Continis

Giorgio Bassani

match 92%

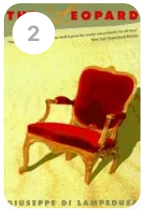

v

"This poignant and powerful novel of love, family, and social class offers a similarly nuanced and evocative exploration of the human experience, set against the backdrop of fascist Italy."

Challenging

Slow-burn

 Not this one

The Leopard

Giuseppe Tomasi di Lampedusa

match 90%

"This nuanced and psychologically complex novel of family, social class, and the decline of the aristocracy offers a similarly insightful and emotionally charged exploration of the human experience."

Challenging Slow-burn

Not this one

The Death of the Heart

Elizabeth Bowen

match 88%

"This nuanced and psychologically complex novel of love, family, and social class offers a similarly insightful and emotionally charged exploration of the human experience."

Moderate Steady

Not this one

The Buried Giant

Kazuo Ishiguro

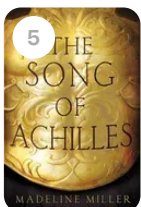

match 88%

"This nuanced and psychologically complex novel of memory, aging, and the human condition offers a similarly introspective and emotionally charged exploration of the human experience."

Challenging Slow-burn

Not this one

The Song of Achilles

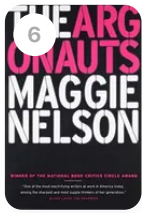

Madeline Miller

match 90%

"This novel reimagines the Trojan War from the perspective of Achilles' lover, Patroclus, exploring themes of love, war, and the human condition in a richly imagined and often surreal ancient world."

Moderate Steady

 Not this one

The Argonauts

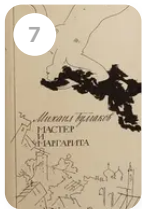

Maggie Nelson

match 92%

"This memoir explores the complexities of love, identity, and family, as the author navigates her relationship with her partner and the challenges of parenthood."

Challenging Slow-burn

 Not this one

The Master and Margarita

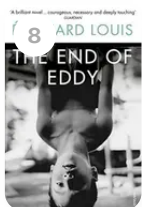

Mikhail Bulgakov

match 88%

"This surreal and fantastical novel explores the intersection of reality and the supernatural in Soviet Moscow, weaving a complex tapestry of themes, characters, and philosophical ideas."

Challenging Steady

 Not this one

The End of Eddy

Édouard Louis

match 86%

"This novel explores the complexities of identity, class, and the search for meaning in a world that often seems fragmented and surreal."

Moderate Steady

 Not this one

The Notebooks of Malte Laurids Brigge

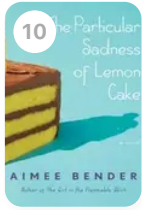

Rainer Maria Rilke

match 85%

"This novel masterfully explores the intersection of personal identity and the weight of history, set against the richly detailed backdrop of Venice."

Challenging Slow-burn

 Not this one

The Particular Sadness of Lemon Cake

match 84%

Aimee Bender

"This novel explores the complexities of family relationships, identity, and the search for meaning in a world that often seems fragmented and surreal."

Moderate Steady

 Not this one+ Show 5 more recommendations

Not quite right?

↻ Start over with a different book